

The Boulders: A Golf and Spa Getaway For Women

November 18 to 21, 2010

Escape to a secluded haven amid the natural splendor of painted desert sand, towering cacti, and clear, blue sky - The Boulders Resort and Golden Door Spa. This luxury retreat truly inhabits a unique location from other exclusive Scottsdale resorts. Nestled in the Sonoran Desert - just outside Scottsdale, Arizona its stunning natural beauty creates the setting for an unparalleled getaway. Whether you are a beginner or an experienced golfer, you will enjoy rounds of golf on their two Jay Morrish designed courses, and you will also have the opportunity to relax with one of their signature Golden Door Spa massages. Discover a warm sense of renewal in a peaceful, stirring atmosphere within The Boulders.

Tour Highlights and Inclusions

- Roundtrip nonstop airfare from Buffalo with Southwest Airlines (see reverse for flight times)
- Tour Escort – Sandi Campbell of GoGirlGolf
- Three nights accommodation at The Boulders in one of their elegant casitas
- Two rounds of golf on their Jay Morrish designed courses
- One Golden Door Spa massage
- Roundtrip airport transfers from the Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport
- All taxes and gratuities for bell staff, housekeepers, on-property drivers, pool attendants, and concierge

Package Price: $1789 per person, based on double occupancy
$2239 for single occupancy

Minimum group size for tour to depart is 16 passengers

Rate does not include: Airport transfers for Toronto, gratuities for off-property drivers and food & beverage service personnel, meals, items of a personal nature, any baggage fees if applicable, medical and cancellation insurance.

“Life is a journey and it must be enjoyed-and, like golf, part of the fun is that you never know where it might take you.”

Dr. Bob Rotella, Sports Psychologist